Why Should Young Professionals Worry About Life Insurance?

Coastal Connections features insurance professional at bimonthly Power Lunch

SHEBOYGAN, Wis. – Feb. 1, 2010 – Coastal Connections, Young Professionals Network (YPN) of Sheboygan County, invites area young professionals to its bimonthly Power Lunch to learn about the importance of Life & Disability Insurance, Thursday, Feb. 11, at City Streets Riverside starting at noon.

Power Lunches are great opportunities for young professionals to gain valuable information from area business leaders and organizations while enjoying great food and networking.

Featured presenter Chris Stevens from Northwestern Mutual Financial Network will discuss the necessity of planning for the future when it comes to insurance. He is a member of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, the nation's largest financial services membership association.

This event is open to the public for $15 and is free for all Coastal Connections members.

RSVP today at www.CoastalConnectionsYPN.com.

Membership is limited to those ages 21 to 40, but professionals of any age are welcome to attend any Coastal Connections events. Networking Hours are reserved for those 21 and older.

Coastal Connections YPN, a committee of the Sheboygan County Chamber of Commerce, is dedicated to connecting young professionals through educational and social events in an effort to help local businesses retain their young talent and to grow the economic future of Sheboygan County. For more information, visit www.CoastalConnectionsYPN.com.

Coastal Connections is generously sponsored by Kohler Co., Schenk Business Solutions and St. Nicholas Hospital.
