Young Professionals Plan Annual Meeting, Top Young Professionals Awards

Sponsored by Sargento Foods

SHEBOYGAN, WIS. – April 26, 2010 – Coastal Connections is hosting its Annual All-Members Meeting at Town & Country Golf Course on Tuesday, May 11.

The event allows attendees to socialize with members and guests, review the organization's events and accomplishments over the last year, and learn more about leadership opportunities in the organization. In addition, winners of the Making Their Mark: Top Young Professionals awards, sponsored by Sargento Foods, will be honored at the event.

The event features complimentary hors d'oeuvres with a cash bar. Cocktails and networking begin at 5:30 pm, with a presentation and awards ceremony beginning around 6:30 pm.

This is the second year that Coastal Connections has hosted its All-Members Meeting, and President Kari Cox has great expectations for this year's event. "We are so excited to bring the Making Their Mark awards back for the second year. Like expected, we will be recognizing some amazing individuals who are truly making a difference in the community."

This event is open to the public. RSVP today at CoastalConnectionsYPN.com or call The Sheboygan County Chamber office at 920-457-9491.

The Making Their Mark award finalists were chosen by a panel of community members after being nominated by coworkers and acquaintances. Of the 10 finalists, special awards will be given to Member of the Year (sponsored by Coastal Connections) Entrepreneur of the Year (sponsored by Mark J. Miller, CPA) Top Young Professional of the Year (sponsored by Lakeshore Technical College) and the organization will present an Advocate of the Year Award (sponsored by Better Life Chiropractic & Wellness).

For a list of upcoming networking hours including updates on special guests, as well as bimonthly Power Lunches and other events, visit the online calendar of events on CoastalConnectionsYPN.com.

Membership is limited to those ages 21 to 40, but professionals of any age are welcome to attend any Coastal Connections events. Networking Hours are reserved for those 21 and older.

Coastal Connections YPN, a committee of the Sheboygan County Chamber of Commerce, is dedicated to connecting young professionals through educational and social events in an effort to help local businesses retain their young talent and to grow the economic future of Sheboygan County.
